

European Democracy and Political Culture

Course instructions

Attending lectures and seminars is highly recommended. You must be personally present to defend your seminar paper. During the course, you will need to pass the:

1.

- Problem essay - 50% grade
- Preparation and presentation of a seminar paper - 50% of the grade

Purpose of the problem essay: to shed light on current topics related to the content of the course

Duration: two school hours

The use of notes and literature is permitted, but the use of the Internet is not permitted

In addition, problem essays will be on the agenda during the time of exams.

2.

Seminary work with the topic of the seminar paper: »Characteristics of populism in Europe«

- In range from 12 to 15 pages
- References: at least 8 units of literature
- Structure: introductory part, central part, concluding part
- Possible methods of analysis: document analysis, survey among relevant stakeholders, interviews with relevant interlocutors

To pass the course the student needs to meet minimum criteria set by the grading regulations of the FUDŠ/SASS for the production of written products (published on www.fuds.si under the section "pravilniki in obrazci"). However, to pass student needs to meet the minimum criteria for both seminar paper and exam.

The points from seminar paper and individual assessments are valid until the beginning of the new academic year. The content of the course is defined in the syllabus, which is published on Moodle and on website <https://www.eu2030.eu/>

This project is co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.